Disclaimer

While every reasonable effort is made to ensure that the information provided on this site is accurate, no guarantees for the currency or accuracy of information are made. This website and material relating to information, products and services (or to third party information, products and services), is provided 'as is'. It is provided without any representation or endorsement made and without warranty of any kind, whether express or implied, including but not limited to the implied warranties of satisfactory quality, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, compatibility, security and accuracy.

Ofcom does not accept any responsibility for any loss, disruption or damage to your data or your computer system which may occur whilst using material derived from this website. Ofcom does not warrant that the functions contained in the material in this site will be uninterrupted or error free. Also, Ofcom does not warrant that defects will be corrected, or that the Consumer Panel site or the server that makes it available is free of viruses or represent the full functionality, accuracy, and reliability of the materials.

In no event will Ofcom be liable for any loss or damage including, without limitation, indirect or consequential loss or damage, or any loss or damages whatsoever arising from use or loss of use of, data or profits arising out of or in connection with the use of the Consumer Panel's website.

These Terms and Conditions shall be covered by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. Any dispute arising under these Terms and Conditions shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

Definitive version of electronic documents

The electronic texts of Consumer Panel documents, which appear on this website, are for information purposes only (as are the printed versions available from the Consumer Panel).

The definitive version of a Consumer Panel publication is either the original printed version held by the Consumer Panel or, where appropriate, the electronic version on the Consumer Panel's website.
